Talbot Arrested for Pulling Bellcord and Giving Go-Ahead Signal.

James Talbot, thirty, of No. 404 East One Hundred and Fortieth Street, was arrested early to-day at Third Avenue and Eighty-fourth Street, charged with endangering the lives of passengers on the Third Avenue elevated line.

Talbot is a striking subway guard. Henry Ameling, a guard on the Third Avenue elevated, complained that Talbot boarded his train and rode for a number of stations in an attempt to provoke a quarrel with him. The complainant says that when he finally ejected the striker, Taibot pulled the belicord, giving the "go-shead" signal, which placed the passengers in danger.
